The Life of Vicky

THE BEGINNING

The life of Vicky

(The beginning)

Once there was a kid called Akash who was living in a place called Rishikesh. He was living peacefully with his parents and brother. His father goes on a walk every day. One day his father goes on a walk. He normally comes back in 30 to 35 minutes, but today 1.5 hours passed, but his father didn't come back. After 3 hours, he and his brother, along with his mother, immediately went to the nearest police station and filed a police complaint. The police tried their best, but they failed. This story is 52 years old. 2023 (present timeline) Today Akash is a 62-year-old man who lives in Pune. He has a son called Vicky (Vikash Kumar Anand). Who is an engineer. One day his son got a letter in which it was written that he had a tour to Rishikesh with his colleagues Aarav and Vihaan for 3 days. (Date-12.12.23) He flew away to Rishikesh with his colleagues. Vicky was doubting on the plane: "Why don't we get any work from the office?" Why do they only get a letter saying that they are going on a tour to Rishikesh? They landed in Rishikesh. They all waited 2-3 days. But they didn't get any work from the office. Vicky talks to his parents every day for an hour or thirty minutes. One day he was walking on the footpath when suddenly a knife passed by his side. He was afraid. He started running as fast as he could. Suddenly, a car passed by his side. He was about to fall on a thorny thing when suddenly someone pulled him, and he escaped. Then he looked around, but there was no one there; only some workers were working. He asked them if they had seen anyone who had helped him. But they said that they didn't know what had happened. He goes to the lounge where he and his colleagues were living. His colleagues saw him and asked what happened to him. He told them what happened on the footpath. After listening to everything his colleague (Vihaan) told him, "I have heard in the news that so many kidnapping cases are happening, which is why you should be very careful." Suddenly, his other colleague (Aarav) loudly says, "Why would anyone try to kill you? Just forget it and don't be tensed anymore." On the same day in the afternoon, he was talking to his parents, and his parents asked the same question to him that Vihaan had asked, and he told them what had happened to him on the footpath. His parents also told him the same thing that Vicky's colleague (Vihaan) told him. The next day, he wakes up at 6 a.m. He called his colleagues for the walk, but there was no one there. So, he goes alone. He comes back in 1-1.5 hours, but again, no one was there. After 5 hours, his colleague (Aarav) comes back with the office's uniform. Vicky asked him why he had worn their office's uniform. He said that the boss told him to go to their office's Rishikesh branch. Vicky doubts him, but he forgets it later. After some time, he asked Aarav, "Where is Vihaan?" but he told him, "I don't know." after waiting for another five hours, they both were just going to the police station to file a police complaint, but suddenly Vihaan comes back. They asked why he is late but he changed the topic and told please give me some water. Next day, when he waked up he saw that there was blood on the floor it was like anyone has dragged a dead body. He called his colleagues but Aarav was not there only Vihaan came there he was shocked and told "what is this? And who has done this?" Vicky immediately called the police but there was no dead body found around their house or inside it. They both moved to a new place which was chosen by Vihaan but Vicky was not agreeing to stay here in Rishikesh anymore he took a flight to Pune and came back home again but he got shocked by knowing that he was in a leave of five-teen days. In the office he told all the things which happened with him in Rishikesh. His boss told there is no one called Vihaan or Aarav in their office and he was also told that they had no branch there. After some days when Vicky was watching news on the tv the reporter was saying "A person called Amarjeet Jha whose fake name was Vihaan was a serial killer who was caught today, he had murdered 3 men and 2 women and while he was going to jail, he was only repeating a name called Vicky. From five dead bodies only one has been identified whose name is Aarav Agarwal" (one of the Vicky's colleagues) He was shocked but he forgotten it later. One day when he was working in his office, he got a call from his neighbour in which he was saying that "Vicky come fast to your home it is burning and we have called the Police and Firefighters they are on the way" He immediately goes to his house but it was burned. His family was taken to hospital but on the way his father died and his mother died at the spot. His siblings were in coma after a week they came back from it fortunately they haven't got injured by the fire. When they knew all the things which happened with their parents and house they started crying and they got very depressed but Vicky helped them to get out of it. They bought an Apartment, they were living there peacefully but after 1 month, when they were walking in the park at 6am a group of five people were coming towards them holding a special type of knife. They got scared and started running but the group was still following them. They were very fast but the group caught them and unconscious them by using chloroform but when they wake up, they were in a room which was totally empty but suddenly a person wearing a clown's mask comes and asks them where is that stone. They got scared and confused. Suddenly Vihaan's brother (Vikram) furiously told "Which stone!". That guy told that "the stone which was given by....."
